El Pasoans Returning

Fred Kingery will arrive Sunday morning from Kansas City to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kingery, for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Violet Aitken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Aitken, 401 East Nevada street, will arrive Friday from Austin, where she is attending the university, to spend the holidays with her parents.

Norman Morrison is expected home for the Christmas holidays from attending the university at Austin.

J. S. Thurmond, who is connected with the Miami Copper company, is expected home the latter part of the week to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Thurmond.

New Riding Club

Cross country riding is finding much favor with equestrians of El Paso and the horseback riders are planning to form a club to hold rides each Sunday. Rabbit chase, hurdling races and several other pastimes of this kind are to be arranged later.

Christmas day will be a day of sports at Fort Bliss, when several athletic games on horseback will be played by members of the fourth cavalry, twenty third infantry and the Country and Toltet clubs.

There will be a polo game played between two teams, one of which will be picked from officers of the twenty third infantry and fourth cavalry cavalry and the other from the Toltet and Country club members.

Four quarters will be played and during the intermissions there will be a relay race each of the organizations being represented by one member. The riders will have two horses each, will change their mounts unsaddling in cowboy fashion and riding around a track to be laid out on the parade grounds.

Then there will be a scarf race, a cigar race and a hurdle race in which members of the different organizations will participate.

The program will start at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

Parties

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Martin Ziehlke entertained for the younger set at her home on North Oregon street. Mistletoe was artistically used in decoration. Games were played during the afternoon.

Animals were cut from a potato, questions were asked about the turkey, and free hand drawing and painting done. Miss Elsie Kohlberg won the prize for painting—a box of stationery.

Miss Tillie Herskovitz guessed the most questions on the turkey and won a hand embroidered apron. Miss Harriet Schwartz was the winner of the animal contest, and was given a hand embroidered handkerchief.

A four course luncheon was served. Mrs. N. Lapowski assisting the hostess. Those present were: Misses Della Meyer, Elsie Kohlberg, Elizabeth Aronstein, Mary Stolaroff, Annie Stolaroff, Stella Goodman, Rebecca Merkin, Rebecca Goldstein, Harriet Schwartz, Tillie Herskovitz, Sadie Lefkowitz, Amy Schutz, Henrietta Mendell, Mesdames Max Meyer and A.
